Cancellation Policy

- Vacations for YOU reserves the right to cancel any reservation, at any time, for any reason. Guests cannot cancel (and receive reimbursement of rental funds) reservation, select a different property, or change arrival date for properties 4 bedrooms and larger if the arrival date is within 6 months. Guests cannot cancel (and receive reimbursement of funds) reservation, select different property, or change arrival date, for properties 3 bedrooms and smaller, if the arrival date is within 3 months. There will be no refunds issued to Guest by Agent should Guest cancel reservation within guidelines of reservation arrival.

- Our normal cancellation policy is that in order to receive a refund, a guest with a 1-3 bedroom property must cancel their reservation more than 3 months before their check-in date. A guest with a 4 bedroom or larger property must cancel their reservation more than 6 months before their check-in date. EPP will no longer grant an extension as of 12/18/2019.
    - They will get back everything they have paid in minus the Cancellation Fee and Reservation fee plus taxes on those 2 fees only.
    - Cancellation without Trip Insurance
        - If a guest chooses to cancel their reservation outside the time guidelines listed above and has not purchased the Trip Insurance offered through Red Sky, the only way CFY will issue a refund is if the guest's same property is booked for the same dates. If CFY can re-book the property for the original dates, a refund of the amount for which it was rebooked minus the Reservation Fee, Trip Insurance, and EPP will be issued to the card on file on the reservation. The Reservation Fee is never refunded, along with EPP, Service Fee and Trip Insurance. If the dates for that property do not rebook, CFY will not issue a refund. If a refund is due to the guest, the refund will be issued one to two business days after all of the dates are rebooked. The Accounting Department will hold off on all refunds for partial nights re-booked until the original check-in date to ensure there is ample time for the nights to rebook.
    - Cancellation with Trip Insurance
        - If a guest chooses to cancel their reservation outside the time guidelines listed above and has purchased the Trip Insurance offered through Red Sky, the guest must first cancel their reservation with CFY. After that, the guest can file a claim through Red Sky for a refund. If Red Sky approves the claim, the refund is issued from Red Sky. If Red Sky denies the claim, the guest still falls under our cancellation policy. If the property re-books, we will issue the guest a refund for the amount that it was re-booked minus the Reservation Fee, EPP, Service Fee and Trip Insurance.
    - Refunds will be issued to the credit card the guest has on file in their reservation. Only managers can issue refunds. If a refund is due please email the Call Center Manager, Call Center Admin Manager, & Team Leads.

Cancellation Protection

- Cancellation protection is best explained as “the ability to cancel a booking” service. This potential service should not be misconstrued as a replacement for Red Sky’s Travel Insurance. Guests will be encouraged to purchase cancellation protection to ensure peace of mind when traveling to Gatlinburg or Pigeon Forge.
- CP can only be added within 24 hours of booking. For online reservations, the guest can add CP up to 48 hours after booking. Anything past this time will need management approval .

    - For properties that are not pet-friendly, we must verify with the owner that they allow service animals. Note: Owners may deny service animals for specific reasons, such as severe allergies.
- Emotional Support Animals (ESA):
  - Emotional Support Animals (ESA) fall under different guidelines for overnight rentals.
  - We can refuse an ESA without an official ESA letter.
  - We can also refuse an ESA if it creates an undue financial burden on the property owner (e.g., if the animal causes large cleaning costs or damage).

    - If there are concerns about allergies or financial burden, this can be grounds for refusal. We may direct the guest to a different property that is more suitable.
- Important: If a guest cannot provide proper documentation for their service animal or emotional support animal, we will need to ensure they are booked in a pet-friendly property and charge the appropriate pet fee.
